Appeal of Nebraska Service Center Decision

Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility

The Applicant is a native and citizen of Yemen. The U.S. Department of State (DOS) found the Applicant inadmissible on two grounds: section 212(a)(10)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(10)(A), for intending to practice polygamy, and section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for fraud or misrepresentation. The Applicant contested her inadmissibility on both grounds and, alternatively, sought a discretionary waiver for the alleged fraud or misrepresentation under section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i).

The Director of the Nebraska Service Center denied the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601), concluding that there is no waiver available for the Applicant's inadmissibility under section 212(a)(10)(A) of the Act for intending to practice polygamy, and thus no need for a full analysis of whether the applicant meets the requirements for a waiver under section 212(i) of the Act.

The record establishes that after submission of the instant appeal, the DOS Embassy in Djibouti removed its findings of inadmissibility, under both section 212(a)(10)(A) of the Act, for intending to practice polygamy, and section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act for fraud or misrepresentation.

As the underlying inadmissibility findings have been removed, the Applicant does not require a waiver of inadmissibility and we will dismiss the appeal as moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
